Professor Debra Morris

Debra is Internationalisation Lead for the School of Law and Social Justice and Professor in the Law School. As Dean until 2021, and previously Admissions Lead, she has visited the Law School's partner institutions in Malaysia on several occasions. She has taught the core modules of Land Law and Equity & Trusts over many years. She has also developed and teaches on a final year specialist module in Charity Law, which reflects her research expertise. As Director of the Charity Law & Policy Unit, Debra has written widely in this area and has presented at conferences and seminars around the world.
